

LBST 100 – Approaching Knowledge From Course Content to Concept Map

In May 2015, Cheryl Schreader (GEOG) and Aurelea Mahood (ENGL), Liberal Studies Steering Committee members, took the then newly approved LBST 100 – Approaching Knowledge course through SFU's Rethinking Teaching workshop in preparation for the first offering the course in Fall 2015.

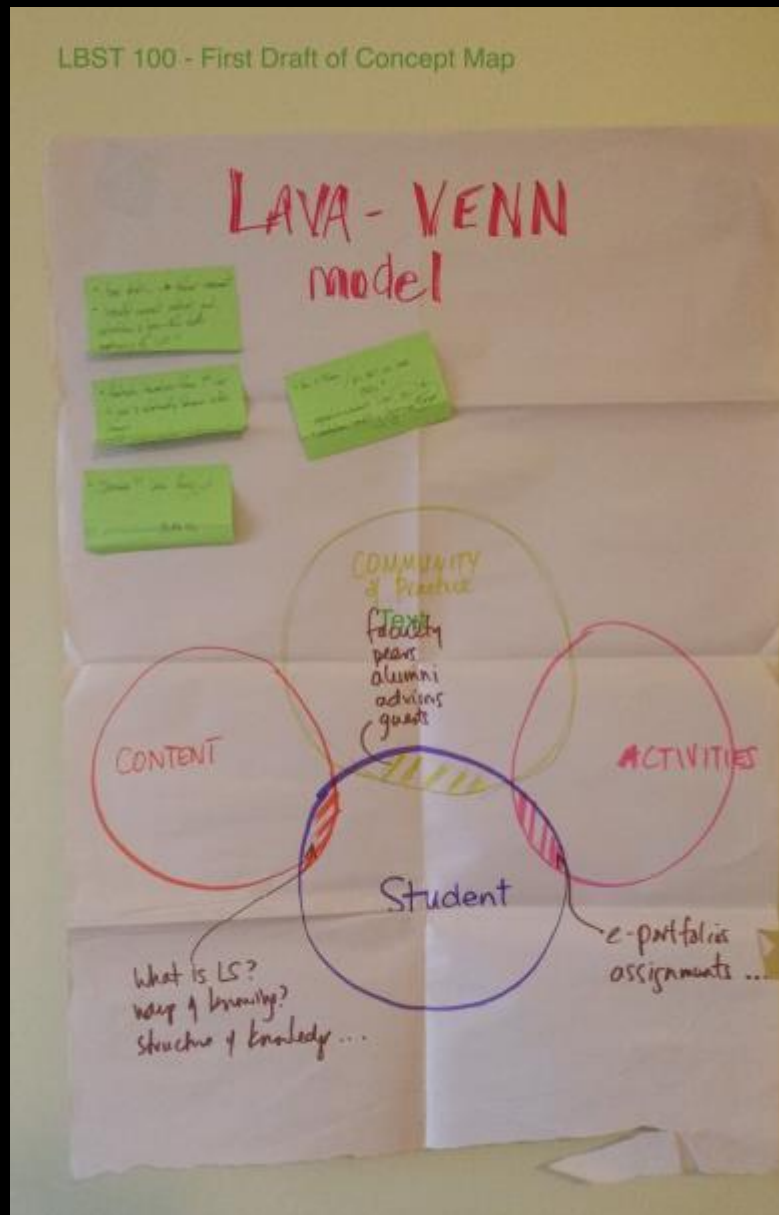

LBST 100 is a foundational degree course taken by all Liberal Studies students in the Fall term of their first year in the program.

Step 1
The Concepts

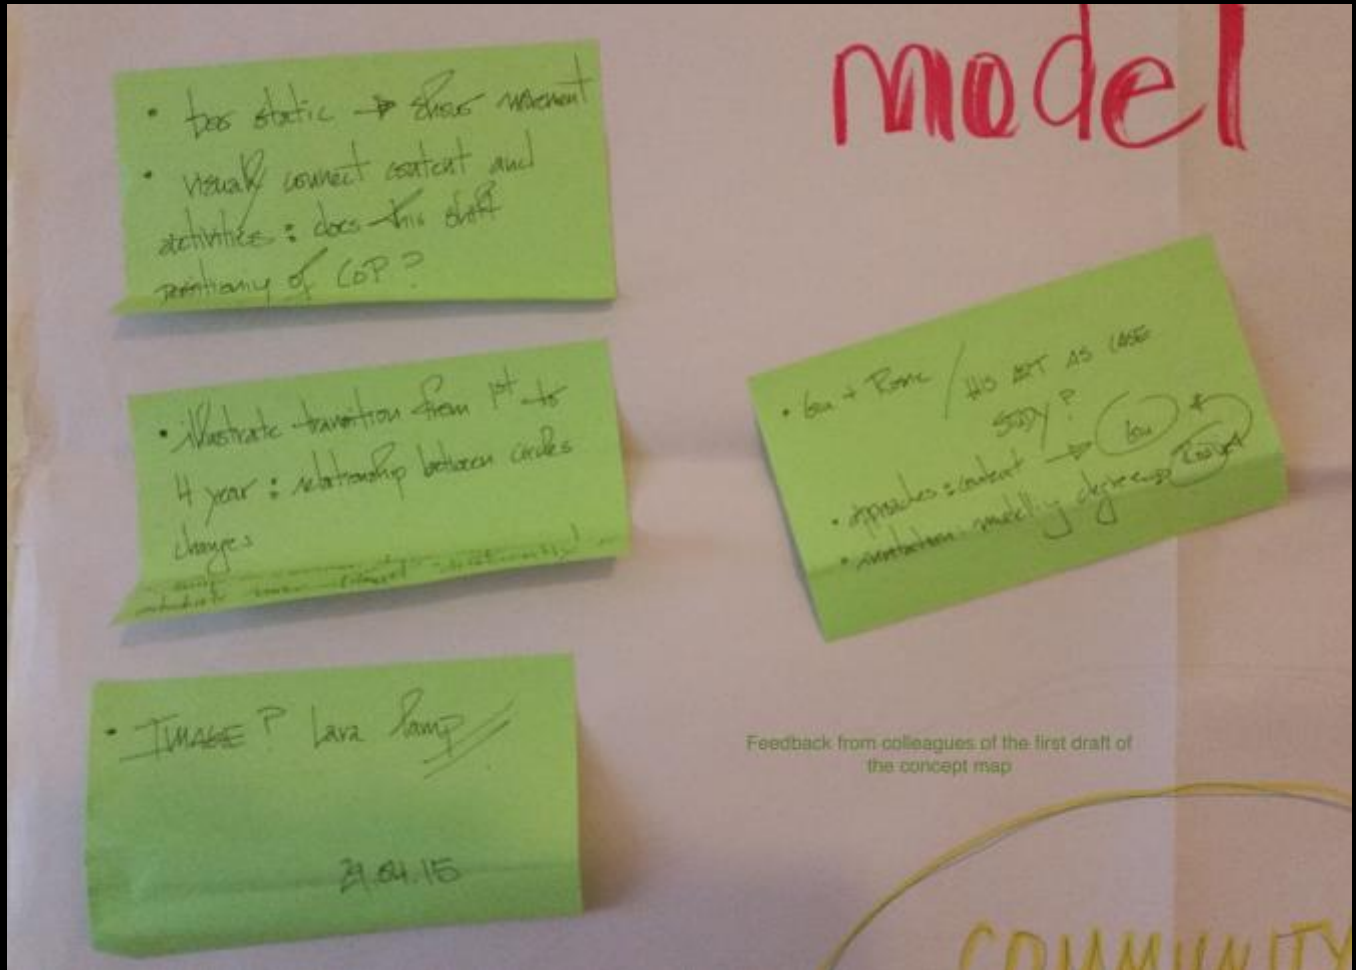

Step 2

First Draft of the Concept Map

Step 3

Feedback on First Draft of the Concept Map

Step 4

Revised Concept Map for LBST 100 – Approaching Knowledge

